INTRODUCTION

LONDON 2012 PARALYMPIC GAMES

OVERVIEW	The purpose of the London 2012 Paralympic Games Qualification Guide is to provide National Paralympic Committees (NPCs) with a comprehensive document that outlines the qualification systems to be met for athletes and teams seeking to compete in the London 2012 Paralympic Games. The Guide presents <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the General IPC Regulations on Eligibility• the Sport-Specific Qualification Criteria (alphabetically)• an overview of the London 2012 Paralympic Programme and• a Glossary of the terminology used throughout the document
STRUCTURE OF SPORT-SPECIFIC QUALIFICATION CRITERIA	As in past editions of the Paralympic Games, the sport-specific qualification criteria contained in the Guide has been structured in a standardized format to enable readers to quickly locate or cross reference information between sports. The standardized structure of each sport-specific qualification criteria is as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Events• Athletes Quota• Allocation of Qualification• Maximum Quota Allocation per NPC• Athlete Eligibility• Maximum Entry per NPC• Qualification System Principles (Methodology)• Qualifying Timeline• Dates/Process of Confirmation of Qualification Slots• Reallocation of Unused Qualification Slots
QUALIFICATION METHODS	Furthermore, the IPC has developed a categorical list of excepted qualification methods that <ul style="list-style-type: none">• reflect a threshold that will achieve the highest athlete performances within the context of the sport• uphold the fundamental ethical principles of non-discrimination and

- ensure regional opportunities for qualification exist (whenever possible) and regional distribution of qualification slots are justifiable based on elite performances and/or prevalence in a given region.

The overview of the various qualification methods used in the various sport-specific qualification criteria include the following:

- Placement at World Championships
- Placement in Regional/Zonal Championships/Games
- Placement in other IPSF Sanctioned Competitions or Qualifiers
- Rank on a World, Regional or Paralympic Minimum Qualification Standard (MQS) Ranking List
- Quota Allocation Formula
- Host Country Qualification
- Bipartite Invitations*

*This method, formally named the “Sports-Specific Wild Card” allocation method, now includes the IPSF and the IPC as the bipartite, two parties, that collectively determine the allocation of a pre-determined number of qualification slots allocated on a discretionary basis.

QUESTIONS AND UPDATES

Should your NPC have questions regarding sport-specific qualification issues, please contact the respective IPSF with a copy to the IPC (if different). As and if updates become available to any sections of the Guide, the IPC will notify NPCs via email, on the IPC website and in editions of the IPC Bulletin.

For the latest versions of this document please refer to the London 2012 Paralympic Games section on the IPC website at http://www.paralympic.org/Paralympic_Games/London_2012. For questions on any aspect of the London 2012 Paralympic Games Qualification Guide please send emails to Qualify2012@paralympic.org or send by fax to +49 228-2097-209 to the attention of IPC Sports Department.

OFFICIAL LANGUAGE	The official language of the IPC is English. In the case that an NPC translates this document for its own use the English version shall prevail in the case of a discrepancy.

GENERAL IPC REGULATIONS ON ELIGIBILITY

LONDON 2012 PARALYMPIC GAMES

OVERVIEW	The General IPC Regulations on Eligibility establish the general conditions as outlined in the IPC Handbook that must be adhered to as a pre-requisite to competing in the Paralympic Games. These regulations ensure that the fundamental rights and obligations of the IPC and its Membership are recognised and protected, whilst upholding the global ethical and moral principles adopted by the Paralympic Movement. The General IPC Regulations on Eligibility include the following areas: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• IPC Membership• Compliance with IPC Athletes Nationality Code• Minimum Age Requirement• Understanding and Agreeing to the IPC Eligibility Code• Compliance with Classification Rules• NPC Selection Standards
IPC MEMBERSHIP	Only NPCs in good standing with the IPC may enter duly qualified and eligible athletes in the London 2012 Paralympic Games. NPCs are reminded that athletes in sports governed by International Organizations Sport for the Disabled (IOSDs) or International Federations (IFs), including the IPC, must ensure that their membership with the relevant organization(s) is in good standing during the qualification period and upon close of entry to the Paralympic Games.
COMPLIANCE WITH IPC ATHLETES NATIONALITY CODE	Any athlete in the Paralympic Games must be a national of the country/territory of the NPC entering him/her and in compliance with the provisions of the IPC Athletes Nationality Code.

MINIMUM AGE REQUIREMENT	No minimum age limit for athletes competing in the Paralympic Games is stipulated by the IPC on a general basis. However, NPCs should note that an age limit may be established by relevant IPSFs through sport-specific athlete eligibility criteria. While the Paralympic Games welcomes the world's youth with a disability, NPCs are asked to use discretion and send to the Paralympic Games only athletes adequately prepared for elite level international competition.
UNDERSTANDING AND AGREEING TO THE IPC ELIGIBILITY CODE	To be eligible for participation in the Paralympic Games all athletes must sign, observe, comply and abide by the rules and regulations outlined on the IPC Eligibility Code form. The IPC Eligibility Code form is part of the NPC registration process.
NPC SELECTION STANDARDS	The IPC recognises and respects the right of NPCs to establish national selection standards for determining an athlete or team's selection to compete in the Paralympic Games. However, such standards must be in compliance with article 2.2.6 of "the Rights and Obligations of IPC Members" Bylaw and respect the IPC terms of dates of confirmation and other administrative deadlines.
COMPLIANCE WITH CLASSIFICATION RULES	Only qualified athletes that meet the sport-specific classification rules and have the sport classification status outlined on the sport-specific athlete eligibility criteria will be eligible for entry in the London 2012 Paralympic Games. It is the responsibility of each NPC to ensure that its athletes are appropriately classified in the respective sport prior to entry.

REALLOCATION OF UNUSED QUALIFICATION SLOTS

At the discretion of the IFDS, qualification slots not used by an NPC may be redistributed to other events and reallocated according to the methods below:

2010, and 2011 IFDS Disabled Sailing World Championships Allocations

Slots allocated through the 2010 and 2011 IFDS Disabled Sailing World Championships allocation methods will be reallocated, following a redistribution to a different event (if applicable), to the next highest ranked and not otherwise qualified NPC in the respective competition.

Host Country Allocation

Slots allocated through the host country allocation method will be reallocated, following redistribution to a different event (if applicable), to the next highest ranked and not otherwise qualified NPC in the 2011 IFDS Disabled Sailing World Championships.

Should it not be possible to reallocate the unused qualification slots in either of the above methods, they will be reallocated, at the discretion of IFDS upon approval by the IPC.

IPC UNIVERSALITY WILD CARDS

LONDON 2012 PARALYMPIC GAMES

OVERVIEW	In each summer edition of the Paralympic Games, the IPC has instituted a qualification slot allocation method to uphold the Paralympic Programme Guiding Principles associated with Universality. This slot allocation method is called the IPC Universality Wild Card (UWC) system and is achieved on a per invitation basis to eligible National Paralympic Committees within eligible sports. The eligible sports include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Athletics• Powerlifting• Swimming For the London 2012 Paralympic Games, the IPC has devised specialised policies to achieve universality targets on both games-wide and sport-specific basis looking to ensure full usage of the 4,200 athletes target quota and increase global participation. The primary policy to this end includes the General UWC Allocation Policy.
GENERAL UWC ALLOCATION POLICY	Criteria for Consideration NPCs with no Qualification Slots allocated are eligible for UWC consideration and may be granted a maximum of one (1) male UWC slot and/or one (1) female UWC slot(s).
